I'm Becca, I'm a full-time mummy to Mia, run a baby gifts business from our home in Nottingham & write a blog about my experiences as a first-time mum and my keen interest in fitness. I have been blogging for over a year now and my main aim is to write not only for myself but to help other first-time mums like me & share our experiences along the way. I love the opportunity to work with brands to review products and I work with PR's as well as brands directly. I love home-cooking, baking, & keeping fit so my blog posts include a variety of subject matters.

I'm a member of Tots100, Britmums, Mumsnet Reviewers, Blogdash, Bloggers Required Parent Blogger, Collectiv Edge, The Blogger Programme, Blogl, Pick a blogger, Mums in the know Super Blogger & Bloglovin. I'm currently featured on www.pink51.com as part of their 'blogs we love', I'm a Mummy Reviewer over at Mum's Days and I have also posted for a 'Stay At Home Crowd' feature.
